Summer School of

Ben Mboi Book Collection

📅 July - August 2019

Atma Jaya Library Summer Course

Candidates in these activities will need to understand the scope of Information and Digital Literacy comprehensively.

In 6-8 weeks, the candidates have to prepare and deliver serial seminars, book review, and workshop related to Information and Digital Literacy.

Venue: Atma Jaya Library, Semanggi Campus

The host venue Atma Jaya library contains the Ben Mboi Book collection. Within this program, participants will do activities that cover discovering, understanding, questioning, referencing, creating and communicating skills.

Further information:
international@atmajaya.ac.id
santi.kusuma@atmajaya.ac.id

Activities and workshop relating to Information and Digital Literacy. will cover the scope:

Discovering
The candidates are expected to have all-inclusive knowledge about discovering credible and reliable resources for academic and professional context. The participants are expected to be able to develop searching strategies based on their needs.

Understanding
The candidates are expected to have all-inclusive knowledge to find meaning and contextfrom a broad range of media. the candidates are expected to understand the concept of mind mapping and the use of its software. the candidates also expected to have a comprehensive knowledge to understand and questions image based on the practical standard-based guide of Libraries Visual Literacy.

Questioning
The candidates are expected to have all-inclusive knowledge and experiences in questioning information.They must show the participants how to analyze, evaluate, interpret, synthesize, and think critically about Information that comes from many different types of media. the candidates are also expected to show the important of critical thinking and its impact to the academic and professional work.

Referencing
The candidates are expected to have all-inclusive knowledge about how to prevent plagiarism and manage references. They must show how to create a citation and reference list, how to quote, synthesize, and summarize In addition , the candidates have to show to the participants the purpose of referencing and how to utilize the reference software management.

Creating
The candidates are expected to have all-inclusive knowledge on how to blend ideas and produce new knowledge through textual,visual and auditory approaches.In this part,the candidates are expected to show the way to produce literature review, create and use imageto the participants.

Communicating
The candidates are expected to have all-inclusive knowledge to enable their participants to succinctly summarize and share or disseminate their works and ideas. Also, the candidates need to share to the participants how their works and ideas can have a strong and influential public identity through blogs, infographics, and social media.